

BYLAWS: ADDENDUM A
TEN PRINCIPLES OF ORGANIZATIONAL MANAGEMENT

All Board Members, Committee Members or persons acting in a Volunteer or Advisory capacity with The CPC agree to abide by the Ten Principles stated below.

- 1. I recognize that The CPC community depends upon the efforts and sacrifices of volunteers and non-profit contributors.
- 2. I respect the right of other Members to have opinions and ideas that differ.
- 3. I recognize that decisions are made by majority vote and, once made, should be supported by all Members.
- 4. I hold confidential all matters pertaining to The CPC, if disclosed, and understand that all information is private and/or privileged.
- 5. I will attend all regularly scheduled Board meetings insofar as possible and become informed in advance concerning the issues to be considered at those meetings.
- 6. I understand that The CPC makes decisions as a Board and acknowledge that individual members may not commit the Board to any action.
- 7. I understand that the Bylaws and mission of The CPC and will not engage with activities that may conflict with The CPC mission.
- 8. I will disclose to the Board, prior to, any involvement with other charitable or fundraising activities not sanctioned by the Board.
- 9. I will uphold and enforce all federal, state, and local laws, and all rules, policies and regulations within the County and State incorporated.
- 10. I recognize that final authority rests with the Board and will make no personal promises nor take any private action that may miscommunicate or compromise the Board.